DAILY BREAD

<https://www.dailybreadfoodpantry.com/>

Daily Bread Food Pantry distributes food free of charge from our building in downtown Danbury. We have welcomed those in need, whatever their background or circumstances, since 1984. Our clients struggle to provide food for their families and themselves due to illness, disability, job loss, low wages, or personal crises. Whatever the reasons, we are here to help.

Daily Bread is run entirely by its dedicated volunteers. Quite simply, the Pantry would not exist without our well over 100 active volunteers who pick up and receive food, stock our shelves, help clients select and carry their food and do much behind-the-scenes work.

Go to the website and sign up to volunteer.

Danbury Regional Hospice

Personal note from Nancy: I saw on Social Media recently that they were asking for volunteers. I have not done this but they were such a help to me and my mom and they do great work. We had a volunteer come and read and chat and rearrange pillows so its not a hard job - just emotional, of course. In my experience, the volunteer training could include visiting at the facility or at one of the homes of the hospice patients.
